

Australian Citizens

Copy of passport for both the bride and the groom. If you have your own witnesses, a copy of their passport is also required

Copy of full birth Certificates of bride and groom

Both parties are obliged to provide a full birth certificate. Shorter versions will not be accepted.

Certificate of non-impediment from the department of foreign affairs & trade

This document confirms that you have not been married and that you are free to married. The document must not be issued more than 3 months before your wedding.

For more information how to obtain CNI, please visit:

<http://www.smarttraveller.gov.au/tips/marriage.html>

No records result from the registrar of births, deaths and marriages for both

Not older than 3 months from the date of your wedding.

Divorce certificate if any

If either party has been divorced, please provide a certified copy of the Decree Absolute.

Official document about changing your name if any

Adoption certificates if any

APOSTILLE STAMP

This stamp refers the legalization and validity of your documents for international use. (1961 Hague Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Documents). The Apostille Stamp is necessary for Birth certificates, Certificates of no Impediment to marry, Official documents about changing your name and Adoption certificates.

For more information how to obtain Apostille stamps in Australia, please visit:

<http://www.apostilleinfo.com/australia.htm>

All documents must be translated and certified in the Greek Embassy / Consulate in your country. You can send your documents by fax or email our agency for translation service.

Please note that all documents must be sent by fax or email for review 4 weeks before your wedding in Greece. We have to confirm that your paperwork is in order. After that, you just need to bring the originals with you.

You have to stay in Greece at least 1 day after your wedding, in order to go to the Town Hall to sign your Marriage Certificate. . If that is not possible, you must obtain a document that will give Marryposa Royal Events the authority to register your wedding on your behalf and you have to contact us to send you via email a sample of that authorization.